PROFILE

Self-taught Fullstack Developer with 3+ years building performant, accessible web applications from database to pixel — skills sharpened through intensive bootcamps and real client projects. I specialize in React/Next.js on the front and Node.js/PostgreSQL on the back.

My strength is owning a feature end-to-end — turning fuzzy product ideas into shipped, maintainable software. I care about clean architecture, fast load times, and interfaces that feel effortless.

Lately I focus on AI engineering — integrating LLMs (OpenAI / Claude), building RAG pipelines and AI-powered chat features into real production apps.
